

Introduction to Academic Writing

The Academic Writing CD provides learning activities as follows: defining academic writing, developing a thesis statement, developing an annotated bibliography, writing a literature review, writing a research paper, and writing a critical review. The CD uses mini video lectures, and interactive activities to provide instruction in these areas.

Introduction to Academic Writing

E-mail: nharris@oneworldarchives.com